HAIL HOLY QUEEN

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

Leader:

Let us pray.

O God, who's only begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life. Grant we beseech thee That meditating upon the mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what They promise through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Leader:

From the fate of hell

O Lord, you have delivered her

Let us Pray:

O Lord, Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the soul of your departed servant, Momsy, the remission of all her sins, that by humble supplications of your Church, she may obtain that pardon which she had always desired of your mercy. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

FINAL PRAYER

Leader:

Friends, let us think of God's living and loving presence in our midst here and now. Let us think of our beloved Momsy, as still very much alive in another and happier life. To you, O God our Father, we humbly commend our beloved Momsy in her mortal life on earth. You loved her with a great love. Now that she has been freed from the sufferings, trials and evils of earth, grant that Your mercy and goodness will bring her to Your Paradise, where there is no more grief, questioning nor temptation but only peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever.

All:

Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, a gentle Father and the God Of comfort and joy, who comforts us in our sorrows and pains so that we can offer to others in their sorrows and pains, the comfort we have received from God ourselves. Let us trust Him through His Son who invites us saying: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest."

Leader:

Most merciful Father, Into Your hands we entrust the soul of our beloved Momsy, for we are sustained by the sure hope that he will rise again on the last day, the Resurrection, with all those who have died in Christ.

All:

We give thanks for all the good things which you gave to Your servant, Momsy during her mortal life as signs of Your goodness and of Your love for her and of the communion of saints in Christ. In your great, great mercy, O Lord, accept our prayer that the gates of Paradise may now be opened to her. In our turn, may we be comforted by the words of faith until one day we hasten to meet Jesus Christ, where we may all be forever together, united with the Lord and with our loved ones.

Leader:

Dear Momsy, may the angels lead you into paradise. May the martyrs and the saints await your coming and escort you to the Holy City. May the choirs of angels welcome you and with the poor Lazarus and all your dear ones, may you enjoy everlasting rest and happiness.

All:

May our faith, which is our greatest treasure on earth, be now our consolation. May our belief in Jesus Christ be our guarantee of eternal life, for He has promised us: “I am the Resurrection and the Life. Every person who believes in Me shall live again. Every living person who believes in Me shall never die but shall possess everlasting life.”

Leader:

O God. Your days are without end; Your mercies are too many to count. Cause us never to forget that life on earth is very short and uncertain. Let Your Holy Spirit guide us through this present life giving justice and charity to people we meet from day to day, so that at the end, we may be accounted worthy to enter Your eternal kingdom, our final home.

All: AMEN.

Leader: A CHRISTIAN VIEW OF DEATH

ALL:

We picture Death as coming to destroy
Let us rather see it as Christ coming to save
We think of Death as an ending
Rather, think of it as a New Beginning
We thin of it as losing
Rather, think of it as Winning, as Final Victory
We think of Death as parting
Rather, think of it as an everlasting meeting of loved ones
We think of it as going away
Rather, think of it as arriving....As “Home at last!”
Death is not extinguishing the light, it is putting out the lamp
BECAUSE THE DAY, THE ETERNAL DAY HAS DAWNED!
So Lord, help us to see a Christian Death for what it really is
The end of frustration and the beginning of fulfillment;
The end of fear and the beginning of peace
The end of pain and hurts and the beginning of joy and love.

Leader:

Help us to see that what we love becomes a part of us, interfused with our lives, blended with our minds and memories, hallowed forever within our souls. Let not our grief take away our hope nor bereavement blind us to what always remains good and lovely and indestructive.

All:

O gracious Spirit of Peace, come alive within our experiences and hurts, within our sorrows and isolation, within our sadness of today and the loneliness of tomorrow. Come alive as the peace and trust which nothing in life nor death can kill. Cast out our fears and let not our hearts be troubled, knowing that this world remains our Father's house.

Leader:

O God, our Father, from whom we came and to whom we return, let us be convinced by the sight of death that it is the body which dies and corrupts. But the more important part of a person, his spirit and soul, by which he thinks and loves, is not touched by death but transfers to a new and endless life beyond the grave. So now, O Lord, make us believe that our beloved Momsy is indeed just "departed" to a better world where at this moment she is alive, conscious and full of love for each of us and where she awaits our coming one by one.

All:

Farewell dear, Momsy, pray for us as we do for you.....Until we are together again and home at last.....forever. AMEN.
